Gwen Pacarro Receives Family Wealth Director Designation

Honolulu, February 2, 2015. Morgan Stanley announced today that Gwen Pacarro, a Senior Vice President and Financial Advisor and CIMA in the Firm's Wealth Management office in Honolulu, has earned Morgan Stanley's Family Wealth Director (FWD) designation.

The FWD designation is granted to those Financial Advisors who have successfully completed a rigorous accreditation program focused on skills required for comprehensive wealth management across a range of disciplines important to wealthy individuals.

"This is an exceptional achievement for Gwen and an attestation of her commitment to today's high net worth families. Gwen has demonstrated a sophisticated approach to the management of significant wealth that helps to set her apart from others within the industry," said Clyde Matsusaka, Branch Manager of the Honolulu office.

Designated Family Wealth Directors must demonstrate professional knowledge and experience in a range of specialties including estate planning, traditional and alternative investments, control and restricted securities, financing alternatives, hedging and monetization, and business succession planning.

The FWD designation also entitles Mrs. Pacarro to specialized access to a variety of family advisory services including, family governance and dynamics, philanthropic services and customized reporting.

Mrs. Pacarro has been a member of the financial services industry for 32 years. As a Financial Advisor with Morgan Stanley, she offers a full suite of financial planning and investment services to individual clients, institutions, foundations and endowments.

Morgan Stanley Wealth Management, a global leader, provides access to a wide range of products and services to individuals, businesses and institutions, including brokerage and investment advisory services, financial and wealth planning, banking services, annuities and insurance, retirement and trust services.

Morgan Stanley (NYSE: MS) is a leading global financial services firm providing investment banking, securities, investment management and wealth management services.
